Friends fur-ever

Single pet lovers looking for someone who really understands them, their cat hair-covered clothing and willingness to go for walks in the wee hours of a winter morning can get a new leash on love March 31.

The Wisconsin Humane Society, 4500 W. Wisconsin Ave., will play host to an 8MinuteDating.com event for single men and women ages 28 to 42. Like most speed dating events, the evening is structured to provide attendees with both mingling time and a series of short one-on-one mini-dates - only this time, you can bring your dog along to sniff out a potential soul mate.

Pre-registration for the event, including a fee of $35, is required. Go to 8MinuteDating.com and search for events in Milwaukee to get all the details and to sign up for your paws-sible perfect match.

Stretching T-shirts

Ever wonder where your clothes go after you give them away? "T-Shirt Travels," airing at 9 p.m. Tuesday on Milwaukee's Channel 10 (10 p.m. on other PBS stations) documents the strange journey of American castoffs from Salvation Army and other charity bins to the street markets of Africa.

Samantha Bloemen's film shows why, as benign as this recycling sounds, it has played a significant role in keeping Zambia and other countries poor.

It's one of the most unusual and provocative documentaries in the "Independent Lens" series.
